Tips to Help Your Student Succeed:

Introduction to Executive Function Skills

Do you have a child or teen who:

- Struggles with getting homework started, completed, and turned in on time?
- Is emotionally resistant to school and learning?
- Has piles everywhere: in binders, backpacks, and all over their room?

Join Marydee Sklar in a practical easy to understand exploration of the brain's executive function skills. Get a picture of WHY a student can struggle. Use her simple tips and strategies to set up success for your student and your whole family.

Marydee is a local educator, author, and national speaker. She's been helping families with time-management and organization challenges for twenty years. Her newest book is for parents: 50 Tips to Help Students Succeed — Develop Your Student's Time Management and Executive Skills for Life. Her book will be available for purchase on site.

Decoding Dyslexia Oregon is a grassroots movement driven by Oregon families and educators who recognized the need for conversations with our school districts and policy makers regarding dyslexia. We strive to raise dyslexia awareness, empower families to support their children, and improve resources for students with dyslexia in Oregon public schools.
