

LAUNCH PARTY ANNOUNCEMENT!

October 3rd, 10 am

Decoding Dyslexia Oregon's Launch Party GO RED Scavenger Hunt, presented by Edison High School

Attend the Launch Party to see the competition and hear inspirational tips from Edison High School's Principal, Jason Wold!

EDISON
HIGH SCHOOL

About our Special Guest: Jason joined the Edison team as Assistant Director in 2013 and became Principal in 2018. He earned a Bachelor's degree from Oregon State in 1993, and he started teaching in 1995 in a day treatment setting for students with social and emotional deficits. In 2000, Jason earned a Master's Degree in Special Education from Lewis and Clark. He then worked with Clackamas Education Service District, helping public schools start and sustain self-contained classroom programs. In 2007, Jason earned Administrative Licensure from Lewis and Clark and became Vice Principal at Lakeridge High School. After 6 years as a high school administrator in Lake Oswego, he is excited to be working with the students, staff, and parents at Edison.

See you there and wear your RED!
